Annual giving to Yale provides critically important current and immediate support for the University’s basic operations. The Nathan Hale Associates program is Yale’s way of recognizing and thanking the many generous donors — alumni, parents, students, and friends — whose leadership annual gifts make possible the dynamic, diverse, and creative environment that defines the Yale experience.

Remembering a Distinguished Eli
A member of the Yale College Class of 1773, Nathan Hale served as a Revolutionary War soldier in Cambridge, New York, and New London and eventually volunteered to be a spy under General Washington’s direction. Disguised as a schoolmaster, he found his way into the British camps in New York. He was recognized while attempting to return and arrested. His papers were found in his shoes — among them his Yale diploma. Before his execution on September 22, 1776, Nathan Hale uttered his famous last words: “I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country.”

Nathan Hale epitomizes a devotion to the ideal of service to others — a spirit shared by Yale’s generous donors.

—Andrew M. Chin ’04 B.A.

Giving That Has a Daily Impact

Earmarked for current use, annual gifts have an immediate impact on Yale’s day-to-day operations. From Kline Biology Tower to Linsly-Chit, and from Payne Whitney Gym to Sprague Hall—wherever they pursue their activities, faculty and students rely on annual gifts to ensure the continuing vitality of the academic and cultural resources that make a Yale education second to none.

THE NATHAN HALE ASSOCIATES PROGRAM

All alumni, parents, and friends are invited to join the Nathan Hale Associates. In addition to enjoying closer ties to the University, members are recognized in an honor roll of donors published each year in the Campaign Annual Report.

Memberships at every level help to enhance Yale’s excellence in education, research, and the quality of its collections. Here are just a few examples of the ways unrestricted gifts can help:

Woolsey Associates  $1,000–$2,499*
> Underwrite an on-campus student research project
> Provide forty flasks for a chemistry lab

Elihu Yale Associates  $2,500–$4,999
> Enable a student team to travel to a championship meet

*Yale College classes up to five years following graduation qualify at $250; Yale College classes six to ten years following graduation qualify at $500.
Support That Makes an Immediate Difference

Because gifts through the Nathan Hale Associates program are unrestricted, Yale can apply the funds wherever the need is greatest—financial aid, faculty recruitment, new technologies, collections, or facilities. This flexibility is vital to learning and discovery at Yale, creating an environment where faculty and students have the freedom to develop their best ideas and talents.

Every annual gift makes an immediate impact. And every annual gift counting toward the Yale Tomorrow campaign, sustaining Yale as an incomparable place for learning, original research, and personal achievement.
